HARD WAY FOR BULLER

Progress Toward Ladysmith Marked With Severe Fighting.

CLAIMS TO HAVE GAINED A HILL.

The Inniskilling Fusiliers Are Caught In a Boer Trap and Are Slaughtered—Other News About South African War.

London, Feb. 28.—General Buller's account of the tremendous resistance he is encountering in his efforts to reach Ladysmith has brought public interest with a sharp turn from complacent contemplation of Lord Roberts' victory to a realization of the serious conditions still existing in Natal.

Though General Buller's lengthy dispatch is construed as a victory bravely won, the commander of the forces in Natal has so often reported similar victories without achieving his main object, that the public has learned to contain its jubilation until Ladysmith is actually relieved, while the long list of casualties invariably following any apparent gain by General Buller is always awaited with dread and anxiety, which temporarily rob his partial success of its acclaim.

However, it is the general accepted belief that General Buller is determined to reach General White this time, and though the stages are disappointingly slow, the nation confidently awaits news of the relief of those 8,000 besieged troops.

General Buller's report shows there is urgent need of Lord Roberts exerting every effort to still further draw off the Boers from Natal to the Free State. That he will do so, and quite likely is already doing so, by marching on Bloemfontein, is regarded as almost certain by the military critics here.

With the additional 600 Boers reported prisoners at Kimberley, it seems that the number of men captured by Lord Roberts nearly reaches 5,000. The afternoon newspapers comment on the hero of Kandahar's achievement, laying special stress on the gallantry of the Canadians, who, according to a Paardeburg special, were actually fighting hand to hand in the Boer trenches.

Buller Gains Pieter's Hill.

London, Feb. 28.—War office has received the following dispatch from General Buller, dated Hlandwani, Feb. 28: "Finding that the passage of Lange wachtspuit was commanded by strong intrenchments, I reconnoitered for another passage of the Tugela. One was found for me below the Cataract by Colonel Sandbach, Royal engineers, on Feb. 25. We commenced making an approach thereto, and on Feb. 26, finding that I could make the passage practicable, I crossed the guns and baggage back to the south side of the Tugela, took up the pontoon bridge on Monday night, and relayed it at the new site, which is just below the present marked Cataract. During all this time the troops had been scattered, crouching under hilly constructed small stone shelter and exposed to a galling shell fire, and throughout they maintained excellent spirit. Tuesday General Barton, with two battalions of the Sixth brigade and the Dublin Fusiliers, crept about a mile and a half down the banks of the river and ascended an almost perpendicular cliff of about 500 feet assaulted and carried the top of Pieter's hill. This hill to a certain extent turned the enemy's left, and the Fourth brigade, under Colonel Norcott, and the Eleventh brigade, Colonel Kitchener commanding the whole, under command of General Warren, assailed the enemy's position, which was magnificently carried by the South Lancashire regiment about sunset. We took about 60 prisoners and scattered the enemy in all directions. There seems to be a considerable body of them left, and under Bulwana mountain. Our losses, I hope, are not large. They certainly are much less than they would have been were it not for the admirable manner in which the artillery was served, especially by the guns manned by the Royal Naval force and the Natal volunteers."

English Soldier Slaughtered.

London, Feb. 28.—But for the surrender of General Cronje, which overshadowed the news from Natal, England would be shuddering over the British reverse at Railways hill, where the Inniskilling Fusiliers were caught in a Boer trap and slaughtered. The London Mail's correspondent, under date of Pieters, Feb. 24, describes the engagement: "The Inniskilling Fusiliers mixed with some of the Connaught Rangers, attempted to carry Railways hill from Pieters. They were under a continuous fire, through which they passed up the heavy broken ground to the first Boer trench. Half way up the hill the Boers retreated to the crest, and then came back on either flank of the Irish troops, enveloping the captured trench with a savage cross as well as direct fire. All night and until 9 o'clock, in the morning our men held the position, under a ceaseless fire and at terrible cost. At roll call only five officers and 100 men answered their names. Colonel Thackeray and Major Sanders of the Inniskillings, Colonel Sitwell of the Dublin Fusiliers, Captain Maitland of the Second Gordons and Colonel Thorold of the Welsh Fusiliers were killed. Two hundred and fifty-two of the rank and file were killed or wounded."

AMENDED BILL PASSED.

Struggle Over Porto Rican Tariff Measure in the House Ended.

Washington, Feb. 28.—The last day of the struggle over the Porto Rican tariff bill in the house opened at 11 a.m. with almost every member in his seat and a large attendance in the galleries. The leaders on both sides were actively engaged in rallying their forces and making computations upon the final vote.

When section 3 was reached, Mr. Payne, chairman of the ways and means committee, offered a substitute reducing the duties to 15 per cent. Mr. Berry (Ky.) said the amendment proposed petty instead of grand larceny upon the people of Porto Rico. Mr. Payne's amendment was agreed to.

Mr. Richardson's motion to recommit the bill to the ways and means committee was lost—162 yeas to 172 nays.

Mr. McCall (Mass.), on behalf of the minority, offered as a substitute the bill for free trade with Porto Rico, originally introduced by Mr. Payne, and the yeas and nays were ordered. The substituted for the Porto Rican bill was defeated, 159 yeas to 175 nays, and then the amended bill was passed. The vote stood: Yeas, 172; nays, 161.

The Republicans who voted with the Democrats for the adoption of the substitute were Heatwole (Minn.), Littlefield (Me.), Lorimer (Illi.), McCall (Mass.), Crumpacker (Ind.). The Democrats who voted with the Republicans against the substitute were Davy and Meyer (La.), Sibley (Pa.), Devries (Cal.).

The Clark Case.

Washington, Feb. 28.—Dr. Peeler, banker at Kalispel, Mont., was recalled in the Clark case. His testimony was to the effect that Representative Bywater had had a large package of money, containing between $6,000 and $7,000, in the safe of his (Peeler's) bank, and had taken it out previous to leaving for Helena to attend the sitting of the legislature. When Mr. Peeler concluded, Hon. Andrew J. Campbell asked to be sworn, stating that he took the stand of his own volition. He is the Montana member of the national house of representatives and senior counsel for the prosecution in the Clark case. Mr. Campbell first related his connection with Thomas E. Lyons, one of the witnesses for the defense. He said that Lyons came to him saying that he had a story to tell, but that he wanted $5,000 for testifying before the supreme court or the senate committee. Campbell claimed he refused to give him the money, but offered to pay him for collecting evidence.

Roberts Admired Boer Ingenuity.

London, Feb. 28.—The war office has received the following from Lord Roberts, dated Paardeburg, Feb. 28: "Cronje, with his family, left here in charge of Major General Prettyman, and under the escort of the City Imperial volunteers and mounted infantry. Later in the day the remaining prisoners went in charge of the Earl of Erroll and escorted by the Gloucesters and 100 Imperial volunteers. The women and children are being sent to their homes. I understand that great dissatisfaction was felt by the Boers at Cronje's refusal to accept my offer of safe conduct to the women and children and medical care for the wounded, 170 of whom are now in our hospital. Very many of them are in a terrible plight for want of care at an earlier stage. I inspected the Boers' laager and was much struck by the ingenuity and energy with which the position was made almost impregnable to assault."

New York, Feb. 28.—The Westchester county grand jury at White Plains handed down an indictment for murder in the first degree against Alfred Morrison of Mount Vernon, who shot and killed the woman generally known as his wife. The district attorney produced witnesses to show the shooting was not accidental, though Morrison had claimed he shot the woman on waking from a dream that burglar were in the house.

LADIES' DAY IN HOUSE.

Proposition to Allow Women Right to Vote Is Discussed.

PAIR ONES AGAIN DISAPPOINTED.

Bill Introduced in the Senate to Raise the Dow Tax to Five Hundred Dollars—Other Legislative News.

Columbus, O., Feb. 28.—In the house Mr. Haner's resolution to submit to the voters next November a proposition to amend the constitution by giving women the right to vote at all elections after Jan. 1, 1901, came up for consideration. There were 100 women in the gallery and quite a number in the lobby to listen to the debate. Mr. Haner made a strong argument in favor of the resolution, and was followed by Mr. Brown of Mercer in a somewhat peppy attack upon the resolution, and the proposition in general.

When the house resumed at 2:30 the debate was continued until 4 o'clock, the subject having been worn threadbare on both sides. The previous question was demanded and a vote was taken, resulting 54 yeas to 47 nays. The resolution was therefore lost, as it would have required a two-thirds majority to have carried.

The house insurance committee has decided to recommend indefinite postponement of the Davis bill to require the independent Order of Foresters to deposit with the state commissioner of insurance a guarantee of $50,000. The committee also decided to favorably recommend the bill introduced to provide that the proposition to consolidate insurance companies shall be subject to the approval of a commission, consisting of the governor, attorney general and the state insurance commissioner.

Mr. Tuller's bill for the relief of Mrs. Eva P. Kleeman in the amount of $3,000 for the fatal injuries received by her husband, Detective Abe Kleeman, in an attempt to arrest Charles Dumont, an ex-convict, last summer will be reported without recommendation.

Senator Howard's bill to increase from $35 to $50 the amount to be allowed by county commissioners for the burial of an indigent soldier, was considered by the house committee on military affairs, and it was decided to recommend the bill just as it passed the senate.

The committee also decided to recommend Mr. Arthur's bill to require assessors to enumerate surviving soldiers of any of the wars of the United States, and has taken no action on Harry Smith's bill to give each Ohio soldier in the war with Spain a bounty of $300, which, in the aggregate would amount to over $4,000,000.

Mr. Partington's house bill to require parents to support their children being cared for in children's homes, if able to, passed the house. It makes failure to do so a felony, punishable by not more than three years in the penitentiary, or from three months to one year in jail.

Mr. McCormick is preparing a bill to provide for an architectural board of five members, to be appointed by the governor, and to receive $10 for each day's session, and to have a secretary at $1,000 per year for the purpose of licensing architects after examination.

In the Senate.

Senator Dodge introduced a bill providing that lawyers may not practice before judges or referees upon whose bonds they are, or between whom there are financial obligations. Proof that such is the case is made a cause of error.

Senator Sleber dropped in two bills. One amends the present statute providing for the purchase of water works plants by municipalities so as to eliminate the limit of $200,000. It applies to all cities, but Cincinnati and Cleveland.

His other bill provides that persons called or drawn for jurors shall not be excused except for physical disability.

Senator Madden introduced a bill that is of special interest just now while the Clark local option law is pending. It proposes to increase the Dow tax from $350, as now, to straight $500 per annum.

Senator Royer introduced a bill to establish such part of Clinton township, Seneca county, as is not now included in the city of Tiffin as a separate township for the election of trustees.

The sundry appropriation bill was passed in the house under suspension of the rules.

The Roberts bill for licensing stationary engineers was unanimously passed. Senator Dodge moved to reconsider the vote, and the motion was voted down, thereby clinching the bill.

Senator Dunham, who had held up the Tuller bill from passage earlier in the session, moved that it be taken up at once. He had heard from his Toledo constituents, or rather from the appraisers-elect there, most of whom are Republican, and of course they did not object to taking $5 per day, instead of $2. The bill was passed at once.

The friends and opponents of the Clark local option bill will speak at a public meeting of the senate judiciary committee next Tuesday evening.

LON CURRY KILLED.

Four Detectives Shoot the Half Breed Train Robber.

Kansas City, Feb. 28.—Lon Curry, one of the train robbers who was engaged in the Wileox (Wyo.) hold-up, on the Union Pacific last June, when about $30,000 was secured, was shot and killed by officers at Dodson, near here, while resisting arrest. Curry, who was a half-breed Indian, was visiting at the home of Miss Lizzie Lee. Four detectives had tracked him to Dodson. Early in the morning detectives surrounded the Lee house. Curry, pistol in hand, made a dash to escape. Two of the detectives fired and Curry fell dead. Curry, with five companions, held up and robbed the passenger train July 6 last. Posse that chased the bandits, killed all but Curry.

A Disastrous Fire.

Newark, N. J., Feb. 28.—The firemen were at work all night playing streams of water on the smouldering ruins of the large fire which swept through the entire dry goods district of Newark, N. J. The fire started in W. W. Snyder's department store. A revised estimate of the damage done is $716,000, falling on 17 different firms and individuals, and covered by insurance to about $544,000. The injured men, principally firemen, are all doing fairly well.

Will Live in Columbus.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—General Thomas M. Anderson, who until his retirement a few weeks ago, was commander of the lakes, will leave Chicago, and in the future will make his home at Columbus, O.

A REQUEST from Gen. Otis, at Manila, for 1,000 pairs of handcuffs and 200 pairs of leg shackles, to be sent at the earliest possible moment, just received at the War Department, has puzzled the officials and they are wondering what need there can be for such a quantity of these instruments. The conclusion reached is that the handcuffs and shackles are for use on American soldiers whose minds have become unbalanced under the heat of the Philippine climate. If this is true, the island must fall far short of being a paradise.

POSTUM cereal coffee and grape nuts,— Calhoun's.

MRS. AND MRS. JAMES T. KACKLEY delightedly entertained a number of their friends last evening in honor of Miss Mary Hulett and Miss Jessie Judd, who leave soon for their new home at Everett, Wash. Crokinole and pocket cards were indulged in, there being five tables at these innocent amusements. At 10:30 a delicious luncheon of ices, cakes, salted almonds and coffee was served. Music by Miss Lida Berry added to the pleasure of the evening.

In the suit of Darius Moran against Policeman Wallace for $1,000 damages for assault, plaintiff was given judgment Tuesday, in the Circuit Court, for $50. The city authorities feel that this was an unjust verdict. Mr. Wallace made the arrest, under special orders both from the Chief of Police and Mayor, and several reputable witnesses who saw the alleged assault testified that Wallace acted purely in defense of his own person, using only such force as was necessary. Mr. Wallace has proved one of the most vigilant and efficient officers on the police force for years, and it seems hard that he should be required to pay damages for simply doing his duty.

VERY ENJOYABLE

Was the Recital Given at the Hayswood Seminary Last Tuesday Afternoon.

A very interesting recital was given by the pupils of the music class of Hayswood Seminary on the afternoon of Tuesday, Feb. 27th. Where all did so well it is almost needless to make special mention.

Miss Jessie Rains deserves special praise for her beautiful Cantabile playing in Ritornelle by Chaminade which was substituted for Two Larks by Leschitky.

Miss Elizabeth Barbour showed decided talent in her interpretation of the beautiful Spring Song by Mendelssohn in the rhythmic and fascinating manner in which she played Norwegian Bridal Party by Grieg.

Miss Marie Rains is developing strength of voice and warmth of expression. She sang two beautiful selections, "Open Thou Thy Blue Eyes," by Massenet, and a "Rose Fable," by Hawley.

Miss Frances Barbour played with beautiful shading and maturity of touch the Morning Song by Mendelssohn. Her technique displayed in the difficult Butterfly of Grieg would have done justice to one of more years than this youthful performer.

Miss Aline Glascott substituted for the last number on the program. She played a Berceuse by Ijinsky and a Schubert-Leschitky Minuet. In the former the melody was well brought out and in the latter she displayed every variety of shade in touch.

MR. AND MRS. JESSE CALVERT have moved to this city and taken up their residence at 427 East Second street. Maysville will warmly welcome this estimable family.

MISS SUSAN VICAOV, a sister of Mr. Wesley Vicroy, died this morning at 6 o'clock, of pneumonia. She was seventy-two years of age. Burial to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Maysville Cemetery.

THE funeral of Mrs. James H. Hall, whose death was noticed yesterday, will take place Saturday morning at 10:30 at the family residence, No. 8 West Third street, Rev. J. W. Porter officiating. The remains will be laid to rest in the Maysville Cemetery.

POYNTE Baes are the only Maysville distillers selling pure liquors by the quart, gallon or barrel, direct from distillery to consumer. Seven-year-old whisky $2 per gallon. Age and quality guaranteed. Get the best. Office 126 Market street—Watson's old stand.

THE will of the late Dennis Madden was probated at Flemingsburg this week. He leaves all his property to his son, after his debts are paid, which it is thought will consume all the estate. J. P. McCartney is appointed attorney, for whom a fee of $200 is reserved.

DR. J. M. FRAZEE has accepted the position of General Agent of the Prudential Life Insurance Company for Northeastern Kentucky. The Prudential is one of the most substantial and at same time one of the most progressive companies doing business, and has had a remarkable growth, now having assets of $33,000,000.

IN renewing her subscription for the BULLETIN, Mrs. Cordelia Beckett, of Winfield, Kan., writes: "The BULLETIN brings me sad tidings many times, but we must take the bitter with the sweet." She adds that Governor Goebel had many friends among the Democrats of Kansas who learned with regret the sad news of his cowardly assassination.

DR. J. N. MCCORMICK, Secretary of the State Board of Health, on visiting Camp Taylor, on the State house square, Frankfort, found no smallpox patients, but is satisfied that at least three cases of the disease grew out of the encampment. He directed that the 100 soldiers yet quartered there be immediately vaccinated, and also all the attaches and clerks in the State Department.

MRS. KATE McCABE, who was recently sent from Covington to her former home at Minerva, has been of unsound mind for twelve years. Her husband was killed a year and nine months ago in a railroad wreck at Chickamauga Park, and a few months after that she became so much worse that her relatives had her committed to the asylum. Later they placed her in St. Elizabeth's Hospital at Covington. Last fall her condition became so much worse that she was sent to the Wayfarers' Rest. She escaped from the latter place in December and was found wandering about the streets of Covington and placed in jail. She refused to give her name until a week or two ago, when in one of her lucid moments she told who she was. The Covington authorities at once sent her to Minerva.

Variety the Spice of Minstrelsy. A program composed of novelties always proves a vehicle of prosperity for an enterprising manager, which fact, perhaps, is the cause of so many novelty hunting foreign tours made by progressive theatrical directors. Directly the alliance of John W. Vogel and Arthur Deming's big minstrels was consummated, an attachee of the consolidated forces was dispatched to foreign lands to unearth, as it were, a novel act worthy of the title of feature with so great an organization. Olvio, the weird, is the result of Manager Vogel's agent's search, and if press opinions are to be relied upon, he has beyond doubt secured a novelty that is a novelty. Olvio is known as the human dragon and with the exception of a few special engagements in the larger cities this is his first American appearance. Some idea of the grandeur of this act can be gleamed from the fact that two complete sets of scenery—more than is ordinarily used for most dramatic productions—are carried for this act alone. Olvio's opening scene is not unlike the famous Brocken picture identified with Faust. Here, amidst all that is weird and ghastly, the dragon is discovered, but by a clever transformation the hideous monster is transformed into an Adonis surrounded by one of the most gorgeous spectacular scenes ever presented. Eight calcium tanks, two electric calciums and four bunch lights, requiring the attention of three special electricians are used by Olvio. Olvio will be seen with John W. Vogel and Arthur Deming's big minstrels at the Washington Opera House to-morrow night. Seats on sale at Nelson's.

NUMBERS MANY VICTIMS.

A Smooth Swindler Working the Country
Taking Subscriptions for Munsey's Magazine.

Early last January one of the slickest-tongued individuals on the road struck Maysville.

He gave the name of H. Bennett Woodson, and was soliciting subscriptions for Munsey's Magazine, at 75 cents a year. He represented himself as a poor divinity student and said he had resorted to this plan to enable him to make enough money to complete his studies for the ministry.

It is hardly necessary to say he did a rushing business. Just how many subscriptions he received here is not known positively, but it is said he carried away a long list of names.

"How do I know you're not a swindler and that if I give you 75 cents it will be the last I shall see or hear of it?" one of his victims asked.

"Well, if you think that I'm not straight goods you needn't pay me the money," replied Woodson. "Just send the money to the house by money order and it will be all right, only I wouldn't get my commission that way."

That settled it, of course, and the aforesaid victim paid over the 75 cents.

Several weeks passed and the magazines failed to arrive. Some of the subscribers then wrote the house, and the publishers' reply states that Woodson has worked his scheme in many other sections.

Editor's Awful Plight.

F. M. Higgins, Editor Seneca, (Ill.) News, was afflicted for years with piles that no doctor or remedy helped until he tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve. He writes two boxes wholly cured him. It's the surest pile cure on earth, and the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed Only 25 cents. Sold by J. James Wood & Son, druggists.

"AUNT HANNAH'S" ESTATE.

Her Last Husband Awarded a Life Interest in One-Third of Her Property.

In the action of Jas. Beckett vs. Hannah Beckett's executor a judgment was rendered in the Circuit Court yesterday by which plaintiff was given a life interest in one-third of the estate of the late Hannah Beckett, who was well known in this community as "Aunt Hannah Curtis," before her marriage to Beckett.

Her estate is worth several thousand dollars. Beckett was represented by C. Burgess Taylor and Hon. E. L. Worthington.

DISCUSSIONS BY THE DOCTORS.

At the Monthly Meeting Wednesday of the Mason County Medical Society.

The Mason County Medical Society met in regular session yesterday.

The proceedings were interesting and instructive; the discussions embracing mainly diseases prevalent, or impending, in our section at this period.

Gripe—the inevitable and ever recurring gripe—received a liberal share of attention and the personal experience of more than one doctor would have given a measure of comfort to his luckless patients.

Among the welcome members present from the county were Dr. Davis, Mayslick; Dr. Hunter, Washington; Dr. Adamson, Sardis, who grace the occasion only too rarely.

Dr. Harover, not appearing, was constituted as essayist for next meeting, with Dr. Pangburn alternate.

"As Long As It Lasts" At a special bargain. Having purchased a lot of eight-year-old whisky that was required to be tax-paid, we have concluded to give our customers the benefit of it, and place the strictly straight, pure eight-year-old Bourbon by quart, gallon or barrel on sale at $2 gallon. Purity, age and being two-stamped goods, guaranteed. Finest on earth.

Don't Like the Turmoil.

[Portsmouth Blade.]

"Dick" Dawson, the artistic bricklayer of Maysville, says he loves his native State of Kentucky, but he is heartily tired of their scrapping. He prefers the Ohio system of politics. Dick says: "Kentucky is a mighty fine State, and if she would only get down to business and cut out her scrapping, she'd be a gauden of Eden, suh; a gauden of Eden."

Hay at Public Sale.

Miss TILLIE WHITE is ill with fever at her home in the Sixth ward.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying Electric Bitters, and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c. a bottle at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store.

The Four D's.

Chas. Spurgeon once said that there were three great enemies to man—"dirt, debt and the devil." He might have added one more and included dyspepsia. The evil results of this disease could hardly be exaggerated. Its effects are felt in mind and body, and are as far reaching as the effects of the curse that was laid on the jackdaw of Rham which was cursed in "eating and drinking and sleeping, in standing and sitting and lying." The good effects of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are most marked in aggravated and chronic cases of dyspepsia. It enables the stomach glands to secrete the necessary quantity of digestive fluids, and this at once removes that craving or gnawing sensation so common to certain forms of indigestion. It tones and regulates the stomach, invigorates the torpid liver and gives the blood making glands keen assimilative power. "Golden Medical Discovery" cures ninety-eight per cent. of those who use it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are superior to all other laxative medicines when the bowels are obstructed.

EMBLEMS OF MOURNING

Stripped From the Capitol at Frankfort by Goebel Hatters.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 28.—Vandals stripped the state capitol building of the emblems of mourning with which the front of the building was draped on account of the death of the late Governor Goebel. The work must have required the co-operation of a number of people and occupied some time. The soldiers were on duty during the night. Captain Cochran, who is in charge, will hold a court of inquiry.

In the court of appeals R. J. Breckinridge, Democratic attorney general, filed a motion and demanded that the court recognize him. Republican Attorney General Parrott objected. The court declined to pass on the question at once, and ordered the matter submitted, as a decision would involve all of the contests over minor state officers.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard street, Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this royal cure: "It soon removed the pain in my chest and I now can sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praise throughout the universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the throat, chest or lungs. Price 50c. and $1. Trial bottles free at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.
